

Professional Full Time Security Officer

HONORABLY DISCHARGED U.S. MILITARY VETERANS PREFERRED

Do you want to be a professional security officer with real advancement opportunities and not a "guard"? The Conley Group Security Forces 45-year-old elite professional security organization. We are an international award-winning company that has been recognized as being a "Best in Class" private security organization. By design, we are not a big-box, traditional guard company. Rather, we are a specialty company that measures our success by customer satisfaction, security officer retention, profitability and possessing the tactical capabilities to confront and succeed in solving real security threats and risks for our customers. We epitomize the term "quality over quantity." Our professional security officers do far more than just observe and report. In fact, we operate much like a private law enforcement agency versus a low-wage, poor-quality traditional guard company. Our security officers are very proud to be a part of our team of bona fide security professionals.

We are currently seeking an intelligent, dependable, responsible, highly-motivated, honest and hardworking individuals for a full time position. The starting wage for a full time officer is $15.00 per hour (plus benefits). Our officers can make up to $28.00 per hour with promotions and differential pay. Supervisors can make into the $60,000.00 per year range (plus benefits). Full time officers must be available to work any shift/day assigned.

Please note: Completion of the Basic Security Officer Training Series (BSOTS) is an employment prerequisite. If a job candidate who we have tendered a conditional job offer has not completed BSOTS, we will provide this training at zero cost to job candidates. BSOTS completion will take only one day to complete. Once successfully completed, candidates will then qualify for employment as a security officer.

If you want to be part of the best and think you can make the cut, take the first step by applying in person, MON – FRI from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM, or submitting an employment application online at <https://www.theconleygroup.com/asp.asp>
