

Security Supervisor (Uniformed and Armed)

PLEASE NOTE: If you intend to apply for this career position, you will need to follow the directions at the end of this ad by completing an application for employment with us. Also, please DO NOT apply unless you meet or exceed all qualifications for this position.

The Conley Group, Inc. will be adding a security supervisor to our team of dedicated professionals.

We are a 43-year-old, national award-winning professional security services company that has been recognized as being a “best in class” security services organization. By design, we are not a big-box, traditional guard company that measures its success by the number of guard hours per week. Rather, we measure our success by customer satisfaction, security officer retention, profitability and possessing the tactical capabilities to confront and succeed in solving real security threats and other problems for our customers. We epitomize the term “quality over quantity.” Our professional security officers do far more than just observe and report. In fact, we operate much like a private law enforcement agency versus a low-wage, poor-quality traditional guard company where no one is proud to work. Our security officers are proud to be a part of our team of bona fide professionals.

As is the case with all positions, it is essential that our new security supervisor be honest, ethical, highly-intelligent, positive, calm under pressure, tactically capable, loyal, hardworking, self-starting, and be able to operate successfully in a fast-paced, military-like environment. A can-do attitude at all times is essential. Our security supervisor will wear a uniform most days, be armed, and perform wide and diverse tasks on a daily basis ranging from routine to those requiring an emergency response. No two days will ever be the same and there is never a monotonous day.

Our security supervisor will assist in training, managing and mentoring our security officers, ensure our customers are receiving the superior level of service they have come to expect from our officers, ensure our equipment remains fully operational and ensure all facets of our operations are functioning effectively and efficiently. Our security supervisor will be a direct report to our security operations manager. Our security operations manager will provide the necessary guidance, training, direction and support to our security supervisor.

It is our intent to hire a security supervisor who possesses the capabilities and the motivation to be promoted. This means promotion opportunities to a higher-level security supervisory position with the chance of being promoted to the management ranks. What we do now is the future of security. Thus, we are most interested in the right individual who is willing to make a longer commitment and grow with us.

The salary for a security supervisor is $50,000.00 to $55,000.00 annually to start. $75,000.00 per year is legitimately achievable through promotions. Additionally, we provide all our security supervisors with a generous benefits package that includes 100% paid personal medical insurance. A family insurance policy can be purchased by the security supervisor at our discounted group rate. Dental insurance, life insurance and other benefits will also be provided at no cost to the security supervisor.
