

Part-Time Armed Security Officer

HONORABLY DISCHARGED U.S. MILITARY VETERANS PREFERRED

The Conley Group Security Forces 45-year-old international award-winning company that has been recognized as being a "Best in Class" private security organization. By design, we are not a big-box, traditional guard company. Rather, we are a specialty company that measures our success by customer satisfaction, security officer retention, profitability and possessing the tactical capabilities to confront and succeed in solving real security threats and risks for our customers. We epitomize the term "quality over quantity." Our professional security officers do far more than just observe and report. In fact, we operate much like a private law enforcement agency versus a low-wage, poor-quality traditional guard company. Our security officers are very proud to be a part of our team of bona fide security professionals.

We are seeking intelligent, dependable, responsible, experienced, qualified, motivated and honorable individuals to work as part-time armed uniformed security officers. The starting pay for a part-time armed security officer is $20.00 per hour. Applicants for security officer positions must meet all company qualifications for employment. All armed security officer applicants are required to have prior training and experience with carrying a firearm professionally. They must own or have available to use the following items:

- One Duty Belt (2")
- Four Belt Keepers
- One Duty Firearm (9MM—.45 caliber for a pistol and .38 Special—.357 Magnum for a revolver with a barrel length of 3"—4")
- One Duty Firearm Holster (at least threat level II)
- One ASP Baton and Baton Holder
- One Pair of Handcuffs with Carrying Case and One Handcuff Key
- Two Magazines (for pistols) or Two Speed-Loaders (for revolvers)
- Dual Magazine or Speed-Loader Holder/Pouch
- One Container of Level III Oleoresin Capsicum with Holster

Preference will be given to those who are graduates from a civilian or military law enforcement academy. Former or retired military police, as well as active reserve military police, also qualify.

Please note: Completion of the Basic Security Officer Training Series (BSOTS) is an employment prerequisite for those who do not possess prior civilian or military law enforcement experience. If a job candidate who we have tendered a conditional job offer has not completed BSOTS, we will provide this training to them at zero cost and without obligation. BSOTS completion will take less than one day to complete. Once successfully completed, candidates will then qualify for employment as a security officer.

If you want to be part of the best and if you think you are the right fit for this position, please apply in person Monday— Friday at our office between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. (address below), or you can apply online at <https://www.theconleygroup.com/app.asp>. We will contact those individuals who meet all minimum position qualifications and who are considered as possible viable candidates. Applicants will also need to submit a DD-Form 214 long form (if military) to:
